Eleven Rebellions in the United States.

Since the organization of the Federal Government, eleven attempts have been made to resist its authority. The first was in 1782—a conspiracy of some of the Officers of the Federal Army to consolidate the Thirteen States into one, and confer the supreme power upon Washington. The second in 1787, called Shay's insurrection, in Massachusetts. The third in 1794, called the whiskey insurrection of Pennsylvania. The fourth in 1814, by the Hartford Convention. The fifth in 1820, on the question of the admission of Missouri into the Union. The sixth was a collision between the Legislature of Georgia and the Federal Government, in regard to the lands given to the Creek Indians. The seventh was in 1830, with the Cherokees in Georgia. The eighth was the memorable nullifying ordinance of South Carolina, in 1832. The ninth was in 1842, in Rhode Island, between the Suffrage Association and the State Authorities. The tenth was in 1856, on the part of Mormons, who resisted the Federal authorities. The eleventh was the late attempt at Secession.

1869	370,943,747 21	321,490,597 75
1870	408,831,372 42	292,111,269 31
Total,	$3,087,155,475 30	$5,303,700,811 23

The difference between these two aggregates is $2,216,545,-335 93. The average annual expenditure for a period of ten years is $530,370,081 12. The average annual receipts for the same period are $308,715,547 53. From 1860 to the close of the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1865, the expenditures were largely in excess of the receipts. From the latter period to June 30th, 1870, the receipts very considerably exceeded the expenditures, in the aggregate amounting to $407,003,518 60.

In the following items we see for what the expenditures were incurred for ten years, ending June 30th, 1870:

For the Executive	$ 56,000,000 00
For the Judiciary, about	15,000,000 00
For the Army and Volunteers	1,140,632,060 94
For the Quartermaster's supplies, Engineers' and miscellaneous supplies of the War Department and Army	2,146,776,896 53
For Bounties from 1863 to 1870	98,208,000 00
For the Navy	480,043,081 25
For Pensions, naval and Military	136,931,457 58
For the Indians	39,285,017 78
For Interest on the Public Debt	851,850,713 29
For Congress	36,969,649 78
For Public Buildings, over	17,000,000 00
For Postal deficiencies, over	25,000,000 00
For Improvement of Rivers and Harbors nearly	13,000,000 00
For Foreign Intercourse, over	20,000,000 00
For Expenses of collecting Customs Revenue	52,591,811 93
For Expenses of collecting Internal Revenue since 1866	39,000,000 00
For various miscellaneous expenses, over	175,000,000 00

We have compiled the above figures from an interesting statement prepared by the Treasury Department, showing in detail the financial history of the Government for the last ten years. At the commencement of this period the public debt was about one hundred millions of dollars, and now it is more than two billions. (New York Independent.)
